LUCILLE—Auntie, we must have some new awnings. The old ones are a disgrace to the house.
AUNTIE—That is true, and I was thinking, that while we were having awnings made we would also have some porch curtains. Mrs. Johnson had them last year and they were such a comfort.
LUCILLE—I heartily agree with you, Auntie. Where are you going to have them made?
AUNTIE—At the Ogden Tent & Awning Co., 2268 Washington Ave. I never have anything of that kind made anywhere else. They have served me most satisfactorily for years. Please call up 264 and have them come out and measure them as soon as possible.
